

1. Looking into the future

100 YEARS FROM NOW

What do you think life will be like in your country a hundred years from now?

1. Where will most people live?
 - a) In houses.
 - b) In flats.
 - c) In towns.
 - d) In villages.
 - e) On other planets.
2. Where will most people work?
 - a) In offices.
 - b) In factories.
 - c) At home.
 - d) On other planets.
 - e) People won't work more than 25 hours a week.
3. What will schools be like?
 - a) Children will still go to school.
 - b) Every pupil will probably have a laptop at school.
 - c) Children will not have to go to school.
4. What will the traffic be like?
 - a) There will probably be more cars and roads.
 - b) All cars will be electric.
 - c) People won't use cars any more.
 - d) People won't be allowed to use cars.
5. What will life at home be like?
 - a) People won't have to do any cleaning.
 - b) Robots will do the cooking.
 - c) People probably won't eat normal food
 - d) There won't be more than one child in the family.
 - e) There won't be books like ours. They will be online.
6. What will the world look like?
 - a) There probably won't be any trees.
 - b) There will be more deserts.
 - c) Countries next to the sea now won't exist. They will be under the sea.

2. Will/won't

Kannst du erklären, warum wir hier will bzw. will not/won't gebrauchen?

Für Dinge, die

.....

.....

.....

	1	2
There	will	probably	be more cars.

	2	1
There	probably	won't	be any trees.

probably steht vor won't

People	will	live...
Children	will not	go...
There	won't	be...

Meistens schreibt man: will Meistens spricht man: 'll aber nicht nach [!]: people will Aufgepasst!

 I will — Ich werde
 Ich will — I want

3. Translate into German

A hundred years from now there probably won't be any trees.

Schau die unterstrichenen Wörter an. Worin unterscheidet sich deine Übersetzung?

Im Deutschen ist es meist unwichtig, ob wir das Präsens (gibt) oder das Futur (wird es ... geben) benutzen. Im Englischen dagegen muss man das will-future verwenden.

4. My ideas about the future

Use these words, but write down your own ideas, too.

➔

will on the moon travel to/by won't have to do Robots

Most people live

They

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

5. Can you match these jokes?

- 1. Teacher: In the exam you will have five minutes for every question. a) No, round.
- 2. Customer in cafe: Waiter, I don't like the flies in here. b) And how long will we have for the answers?
- (fly - Fliege) c) Hopefully.
- 3. Waiter, will the pancakes be long? d) Come again tomorrow. We'll have new ones then.
- (pancake - Pfannkuchen)
- 4. Do you think I'll lose my looks when I get older? e) Hopefully.
- (looks - gutes Aussehen)

1. 2. 3. 4.

😊

Teacher: What are you making, Steve?
Steve: A liquid that will dissolve anything.
Teacher: And what will you keep it in?
liquid - Flüssigkeit, dissolve - auflösen, keep - aufbewahren