

some / any – much / many 1

▶ Read the sentences and fill the gaps with some or any.

Lies dir die Sätze durch und ergänze die Lücken mit some oder any.

1. Let's buy some chocolate.

I want to eat _____ sweets.

Let's paint _____ pictures.

During the holidays, I want to read _____ books.

We've got _____ lemonade in the kitchen.

2. Have you got any ideas?

Have you got _____ water?

Would you like _____ tea?

Have we got _____ biscuits?

3. I haven't got any socks in my cupboard.

He hasn't got _____ money in his pocket.

You haven't got _____ orange juice.

We haven't got _____ crisps.

some / any – much / many 2

▶ Look at the pictures and complete the sentences. Use some or any.
Sieh dir die Bilder an und vervollständige die Sätze. Verwende some oder any.

1. Max has got some crisps,

but he hasn't got any lemonade.

2. Max has got _____ apples,

but he hasn't got _____ oranges.

3. Max has got _____ chocolate,

but he hasn't got _____ sweets.

4. Max has got _____ milk,

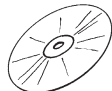

but he hasn't got _____ water.

5. Max has got _____ honey,

but he hasn't got _____ jam.

6. Max has got _____ CDs,

but he hasn't got _____ books.

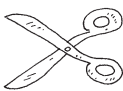

7. Max has got _____ comics,

but he hasn't got _____ felt-tips.

8. Max has got _____ football shoes, but he hasn't got _____ socks.

9. Max has got _____ scissors,

but he hasn't got _____ paper.

10. Max has got _____ flowers,

but he hasn't got _____ birds.

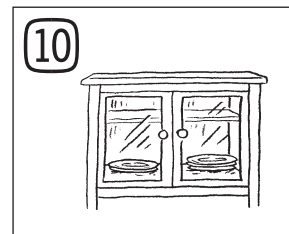

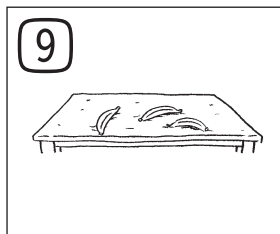

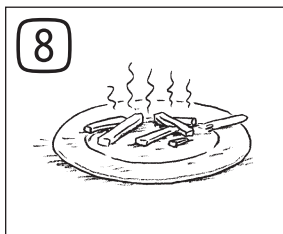

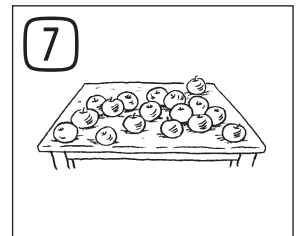

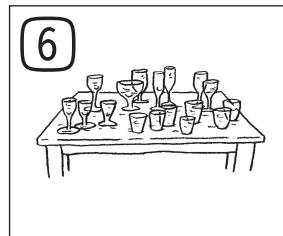

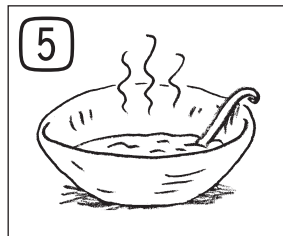

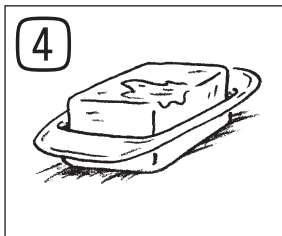

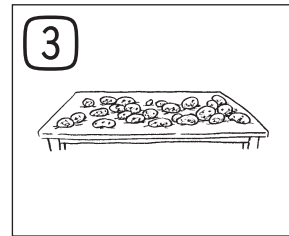

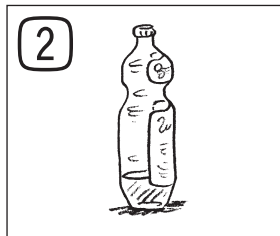

some / any – much / many 3

3 Read the sentences and find the correct picture. Note the number behind the sentence.

Lies dir die Sätze durch und finde das passende Bild. Schreibe die Nummer hinter den Satz.

- a) There isn't much tea in the cup. picture number 1
- b) There are many apples on the table. picture number 7
- c) There isn't much soup in the bowl. _____
- d) There aren't many chips on the plate. _____
- e) There is much butter on the plate. _____
- f) There are many potatoes on the table. _____
- g) There are many glasses on the table. _____
- h) There aren't many plates in the cupboard. _____
- i) There isn't much lemonade in the bottle. _____
- j) There aren't many bananas on the table. _____

some / any – much / many 4

4 ➤ Much or many? Colour all nouns you use with much green and nouns you use with many red.

Much oder many? Male alle Nomen, die du mit much nutzt, grün an.

Male alle Nomen, die du mit many nutzt, rot an.

bowls

money

milk

cups

tea

tomatoes

boys

honey

rice

pencil cases

girls

orange juice

food

biscuits

cakes

water

some / any – much / many 1

① Read the sentences. Would you use some or any? Fill the gaps.

- Let's buy some chocolate.
- Have you got _____ ideas?
- I want to eat _____ sweets.
- Let's paint _____ pictures.
- During the holidays, I want to read _____ books.
- I haven't got _____ socks in my cupboard.
- We've got _____ lemonade in the kitchen.
- But we haven't got _____ crisps.
- Have we got _____ biscuits?
- Would you like _____ tea?
- Can I have _____ water, please?

② Look at the pictures and write sentences. Use some or any.

1. Max has got some crisps,

but he hasn't got any lemonade.

2. _____

3. _____

4. _____

5. _____

6. _____

7. _____

8. _____

9. _____

10. _____

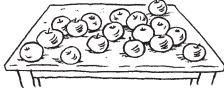

some / any – much / many 2

3 Much or many? Write sentences next to the pictures.

1. There is not much tea in the cup.

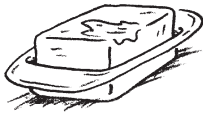

2. There are many apples on the table.

3. _____

4. _____

5. _____

6. _____

7. _____

8. _____

9. _____

10. _____

4 Much or many?

Colour all nouns you use with much green and nouns you use with many red.

tomatoes

water

honey

milk

cups

tea

pencil cases

rice

girls

food

money

bowls

orange juice

boys